

1 I remember many happy days in the Anne Arundel
2 Bar when your father was here and I loved to try cases
3 before him, and when he was retired at 70 I wished many 4 times that he was back on the bench, and he was well able 5 until the day he passed away to try cases, and I don't 6 think that the Court of Appeals is going to abuse this.

7 We are going to have plenty of judges over 8 70. A lot of them I know are well able to try cases and 9 when as Delegate Rosenstock has said, we will 10 call on that reserve of human energy, knowledge and 11 wisdom and give them a little work now and then, it would 12 make their declining days much happier.

13 DELEGATE CLARK: There is about one minute
14 remaining; would Delegate Johnson wish to designate 15 someone to speak?

16 DELEGATE JOHNSON: Is this under controlled
17 time?

18 DELEGATE CLARK: We are under controlled time.

19 DELEGATE JOHNSON: I didn't realize that. I
20 have no one in particular. I assume there is some 21 additional time remaining under uncontrolled time, is
